THE MERMAID

Traditional

1. 'Twas Friday morn when we set sail,
And we were not far from the land,
When the Captain he spied a lovely mermaid,
With a comb and a glass in her hand, her hand, her hand,
With a comb and a glass in her hand.

Chorus Oh! the ocean wave may roll,
And the stormy winds may blow,
While we jolly sailors go skipping to the tops,
And the land-lubbers lying down below, below, below,
And the land-lubbers lying down below.

2. Then up spake the Captain of our gallant ship,
And a well spoken man was he,
"I have married me a wife in Salem town,
And tonight she a widow will be, will be, will be,
And tonight she a widow will be".

Chorus Oh! the ocean wave may roll etc.,

3. Then out spake the boy of our gallant ship,
And a well-spoken laddie was he,
"I've a father and mother in Boston city,
But to-night they childless will be, will be, will be,
But to-night they childless will be".

Chorus Oh! the ocean wave may roll etc.,

4. Then three times around went our gallant ship,
And three times around went she,
Then three times around went our gallant ship,
And she sank to the depths of the sea, the sea the sea,
And she sank to the depths of the sea.

Chorus Oh! the ocean wave may roll etc.

JERUSALEM

Parry

And did those feet in ancient time
Walk upon England's mountains green?
And was the holy Lamb of God
On England's pleasant pastures seen?
And did the countenance divine
Shine forth upon our clouded hills?
And was Jerusalem builded here
Among those dark satanic mills?

Bring me my bow of burning gold!
Bring me my arrows of desire!
Bring me my spear! O clouds, unfold!
Bring me my chariot of fire!
I will not cease from mental fight,
Nor shall my sword sleep in my hand,
Till we have built Jerusalem
In England's green and pleasant land.
