T.D.:
Beginning to understand the work but still has some lapses. Tidiness is not one of his virtues as yet.
Average practical work.

Still untidy and disorganised. He has the capacity to express himself well, but his written work is usually very poorly presented. There has however been some improvement lately in both language and literature.

Biology.

This work, on the few occasions when he has bothered to hand it in, has been bad. Until he becomes more efficient and is prepared to make some effort, I see little likelihood of this unsatisfactory situation improving.
